Look at YOUR CHURCH

Look at your church's website. Point to your church building. Show any areas pictured (sanctuary, classrooms, kids areas, etc.). Talk about how church is where we go to worship and learn about God with other people.

Look at CONSTRUCTION EQUIPMENT

Drive by a construction site or look at books about construction. Talk about what you see. Relate that King Solomon built a new temple (church) for the people. Show the Bible story picture (reverse side). Review the Bible story.

DRIVE BY Your Church

Drive by your church this week and point out the building to your child. Remind your child that King Solomon had the temple built and all the people celebrated. Pray aloud, with your eyes open, thanking God for your church. Say that at church people sing and thank God.
